

Tambo Bluff – Biodiversity snapshot
January 2011

Host plant - Eucalyptus crenulata (garden plant endangered species from central Victoria [Buxton Gum] this tree suffered severe dieback for many years prior to mistletoe infection)

Newly hatched butterflies

Parasitic plant - Muellerina eucalyptoides (Creeping Mistletoe) common to many Eucalyptus species, food plant for possums and the Greater Glider (Petauroides volans) - host plant for the butterfly Delias harpalyce (Imperial/White Jezebel)

Butterfly pupae